GENERAL PAU EXPRESSES GRATITUDE TO MCGILL

The following letter, received by Vice-Principal Moyse from General Pau, the gallant and distinguished Frenchman and hero of two wars, who spoke at the Royal Victoria College on Monday last, expresses the gratitude of the French Mission for the welcome which they received:

Charles E. Moyse, Vice Principal of the McGill University.

Dear Sir,—On behalf of the French Mission, permit me to express to you, to your professors and students, our very sincere gratitude for the magnificent welcome which was extended to us, on Monday last, by the McGill University. We knew the great part your fine institution has taken in the war by sending so many fighters in the fields of France. Your applause, the cordiality of your speech, the sympathy shown by the other orators, are so many more proofs of the ties now existing between France and Canada. You expressed the wish that these ties may be still developed and that the intercourse between the students and professors of France and Canada may be strengthened. I sincerely share this opinion, and if in the future such fine institutions as the McGill University and the French Universities may come to closer touch, nobody will be happier than the Chief of the French Mission.

Would you please convey my best thanks to Mr. Robert W. Lee, and also to Mr. Adair, who spoke on behalf of the students, for their kind words and the feelings of sympathy towards France which were expressed in their speeches.

With many thanks to yourself, I am, Dear Sir, yours very truly,

G. PAU.

Game to M.A.A.A.

SENIORS VICTORIOUS

Defeated M.A.A.A. in Close and Exciting Battle After Five Minutes Overtime.

In a game which was replete with thrills from the beginning to the end,
McGill defeated the M.A.A.A. seniors
by one point, after playing five minutes overtime. The Red and White team played a magnificent game throughout and were cheered on by a gallery practically filled with their supporters. Time and again the M. A.
A. men forged ahead only to be outplayed by the McGill men who were urged to do their utmost by a series of McGill yells and numerous shrieks from their lady supporters,
of whom there was a large number.

The game was so exciting and close that none of the spectators were in a mood to keep a close tab on the score, and when someone announced that McGill had won the game by one point, at the end of time, no one questioned him. The players retired to their dressing rooms and the crowd were leaving when the scorer discovered that the result of the game
had been a tie; the crowd returned to watch five minutes more of play which kept everyone on their feet calling upon the teams to obtain a lead before the time was up.

In the overtime play, Kern put McGill in the lead by scoring on a free shot. M. A. A. assumed the lead shortly after when Fitzpatrick scored a field goal. It looked as if the game was lost to the college
team when Hyndman took a shot.
Just as he shot he was checked, but the ball soared in the air and fell through the basket without even

INSTRUCTORS NEEDED TO TEACH SWIMMING

Plan to Have All McGill Men Swimmers.

For some time past it has been well known, but also a lamentable fact, that many McGill students, embracing all faculties and years, cannot swim.
This branch of athletics has for several years past been rather neglected,
which is largely due to war conditions. However, now that the war is over, swimming is being taken up at other universities, and McGill will not be behind in this important sport.

There are many good swimmers at the University, and quite a number of fast ones. It is intended to train these swimmers to become instructors. The men will be drawn from all faculties and years, and hence will be able to be at the Central Y.M.C.A. Tank at practically all hours.

Many men at McGill can swim pass-ably, and to these will be taught speed swimming, fancy diving, and aquatic tricks. However, the main object is to swim, as the aquatic and polo teams next year will be well patronized, and

B. W. & F. CLUB PLAN FOR A GOOD SMOKER

Fine Musical Programme and Professional Boxing Bout
Arranged for.

Permission has been obtained from the Athletic Association to hold a B. W.
and F. smoker along the same lines as those which proved so successful before the war. The date set for this event is Saturday, March 22, and the students are requested to leave this evening open so as to be on hand in full force. Besides the competition which will take place between the members of the club, there will be several boxing bouts given by veterans of the M.A.A.A. Boxing Club.

Several graduate members have consented to make their appearance once more on the wrestling mat. Among the other features of the evening will be a professional boxing bout and an unusual musical programme.

The smoker will be held in the ballroom of the Union. Tickets will be placed on sale shortly.

SCI. '16 MAN IS HEAD OF WIRELESS SCHOOL

In a list of promotions recently published in the London "Weekly Times,"
there appears the name of Heber W.
Dawson, Science '16. Lieut. Dawson received his captaincy on February last.

Shortly after registering in the third year of Science, in the fall of 1914, Dawson enlisted, and after passing the military examinations for an officer's commission, went overseas as a lieutenant in the Canadian Engineers.
While there he was attached to the First Canadian Divisional Signal Corps
with which unit he went to France early in 1915. Upon his arrival he was detailed to the construction and operation of telephone and wireless systems at the front. When open warfare began, the demand for wireless operators became so great that Captain Dawson was put in charge of a school for their training, from which over a hundred qualified men have been turned out. Dawson is still carrying on overseas.

Good Reception.

The Russian Symphony Orchestra

yesterday afternoon, at His Majesty's

(f) Les Barrières Paladines de

The main item of the programme
was Tchaikowsky's fifth symphony, generally considered his greatest orchestral work. It exhibits the composer at his best. The second movement is especially rich in melody and orchestral colour. The third movement was played with great rhythmical feeling and its many delicate effects were well brought out. Perhaps the most popular movement of all, however, was the Finale, which was played with great dash and energy,
although the brasses had a tendency

LT. MAURICE TISON RETURNS TO MCGILL

Science '19 Man Had Thrilling
Time as Birdman in France.

Among those who have recently returned from overseas is Maurice Tison,
a former member of Science '19.
Maturiculating from the Montreal High School, Tison entered the University as a student of Civil Engineering. At the end of his second year he enlisted in the Royal Air Force, and after the usual course of training, received his commission and went overseas.

On arriving in England, Tison took up the advanced course which perfects
the pilot in the art of gunnery, and proceeded to France. During the offensive last summer, some time after accounting for his first Bosche, Tison was shot down in a melee amid the clouds, but succeeded in landing. Unfortunately, however, it was on German soil, and he was promptly placed in an internment camp. After spending two months in the various camps
in Hunland, he was freed by the signing of the armistice, and has now returned to his Alma Mater to complete his Science course.

REGARDING TRACK MEETS.

In another column of the Daily there appears a letter with regard to the coming Indoor Track Meet, which takes place at the Craig Street Barracks, on Wednesday, March 19. This will be the most important athletic event of the season, and, as the letter intimates, will be the forerunner of many Intercollegiate events which will be held next fall.

During the past week a large number of entries for the various events have been filed. Every day more are coming in, so it is certain that next Saturday night will see a large list of names for each event. Already many men are to be seen down at the Central "Y" Gymnasium having their daily workout, and amongst these are to be seen a number of the "old timers" who have on so many occasions represented their Alma Mater.

The meet will also afford an excellent opportunity for new men to prove their worth. Great interest is being taken in these new men by those in charge of athletics, and the showing which they will make in this contest will determine to a great extent their chances of securing a place on one of the Intercollegiate teams next year.

Every student is needed to make this meet a complete success, and March 19 should see every man with a ticket for the event. Show your interest in college athletics, men, by taking an interest in it, and boost what will be the biggest contest this session.

On the McGill team the outstanding player was Kern on the defence; playing a perfect defensive game, he also assisted the home players very much and scored all of his team's free throws. The players on the M.A.A.A. team all acknowledged that he could not be passed and it was practically impossible to cover him when he came down the floor. Hay playing with an infected arm, put up a fine exhibition and was responsible for the majority of McGill's goals. The defence on their opponents team were determined to keep him covered and he was forced to extend himself to the limit to outwit them. Upham and Young both played good games on the home and Montgomery was effective on the defence.

The game started off with McGill on the offensive and the first goal was scored by Upham about a minute after play began. This shot was taken from outside the defence and was the prettiest long shot seen during the game. Knowles evened up the score in quick time by scoring one for the Winged Wheelers. Hay put in his first goal after much play around the M.A.A.A. basket and McGill was once more in the lead.

McGill was awarded many free shots but Kern could not get them in at first and no advantage resulted to the team from them. Young scored from the side and Hay put McGill further in the lead by scoring a basket. Once again Young scored and it looked as if McGill would win the game easily. However, M.A.A.A. put in two free shots and seemed to put more life into their play for shortly afterwards they scored a basket from the field. Hay attempted a shot but was fouled in the act of shooting and McGill were awarded two free shots; Kern succeeded in putting in one of these. M.A.A.A. were given two free shots and Sanders succeeded in getting both of them. Kern put in a goal on a free shot and the period ended with the score 12-9 in McGill's favor.

Within a minute after the resumption of play M.A.A.A. had scored two field goals and were pressing McGill hard. The Red and White were awarded a free throw and Kern was again successful in putting in the ball. Sanders took a long shot and added another basket to M.A.A.A.'s total and Kern made another free shot for McGill. Sanders added two more points to his team's total by another basket. Hay scored first basket for McGill since half-time on a shot from the side. Another free shot was made by Kern and it looked as if McGill were picking up but Sanders was able to put in one more for his team shortly afterwards. Hay was again successful in a shot under the basket. The play was still going very fast when the whistle blew for time with the score 19-19.

Rarely has McGill taken part in such an exciting game of basketball and all the players are to be congratulated on their showing.

The intermediates played a hard game but were beaten to the tune of 27-22. The McGill team outplayed their opponents but lacked a man who was able to shoot with any accuracy. Carl Forbes was depended upon to fill the position under the basket but he preferred to take a trip out of town and the team were forced to play a man who had never practised with them. The spirit shown by a player in deserting a team before a game is not often to be seen at McGill and it is to be hoped, will not be often seen again. Clarke played a hard game in Forbes' place but could not get into the team play, nor could Laing who replaced him later on. Bulger, who turned out with the team, was ineligible to play, owing to the fact that he had not been registered in time.

Clarke scored a goal for McGill shortly after the commencement of play but the M.A.A.A. team retaliated with four field goals in quick succession; Park was responsible for two of these, Thompson for one, and Binmore for one. Laishley took the ball down the floor and rolled it to Clarke who shot another basket, making the score 8-4. M.A.A.A. scored another field goal and Brown put in a free shot for McGill shortly afterwards. Brown scored two goals for McGill and Park two for M.A.A.A., leaving the game as it stood before. M.A.A.A. put in another basket and Brown added a free shot to McGill's total when they were awarded it for charging on the part of Binmore. Numerous free shots were awarded McGill but they were unable to profit by them. The whistle blew for half-time, with the score 16-10 in M.A.A.A. favor.

At the outset of the second period

PICNICKING IN JAMAICA

A Day's Sport at Moneague and a Bathe in Dunn's River.

"Yes, I come from Jamaica."
 "Jamaica ! ! ! ! !"
 "Why yes, you know, Jamaica, West Indies."

"O.....h, of course !"
 I would like to say that Jamaica really is on the map. It's only a dot, but I give you my word, it is not hard and long through a magnifying glass, you will see a little pink smudge labelled "Jamaica" with Kingston printed out in the sea. That's the capital, and we call it a city. Don't ask me how many billions inhabit it, for I don't know.

Some very ardent Montreals think the fame of "Alma Mater" is entirely confined to Canada:

"What on earth made you choose McGill of all places?" they ask.

They forget Jamaica is a British colony. Also they lose sight of the fact that, after six or seven days at sea, twelve hours more or less in a stuffy tram doesn't count for much to keep the Union Jack in sight.

Funney to say, we are not Canibals, we speak English, we are not a part of Cuba. And just imagine, the moon really shines on us like ordinary mortals. I can't get queer?

Having settled these trifling differences of opinion, hands up who would like to hear about a ripping way to spend a week-end in the tropics. At right then, I will do my best to make you see everything it is.

It's now about 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, and two carloads of us are leaving Kingston for Moneague. It is only a run of about two and a half hours, so there's lots of time—we get out of Kingston on to the Spanish Town road in a very short while, and off we go. Now, at home, that road is proverbial for two things, ruts and dust. But, what's the odds? We are for a good time, and are in no way prevented by these obstacles from trying to get past each other with out cuts wide open. As we squeeze through between a dozen and a cart, the old country woman driving the donkey, with disgust written all over her face, stick her hands on her hips and calls out:

"Lord, look 'por dem."

We reach Spanish Town after a run of about 13 miles, and pass the cathedral and the old Governor's House, where the gay ladies of two generations ago used to dance into the next morning. Now, the place is shut up and musty, but there are still the remains of its fine old furniture to be seen. Leaving all this behind us, we shoot round the corner, and are once more on the open road.

NOTICES

Mrs Irwin's Competition. — R. V. Section.

The time limit for Mrs. Irwin's competition is being extended to March 20. There should be at least three competitors from each year. Any information about the rules of the competition can be obtained from the executive of the Delta Sigma Society, with whom the manuscripts are to be left when completed. Up to date the Delta Sigma Society has concerned itself entirely with talent in public speaking. This competition gives an excellent opportunity to those with literary talent to display it. If you feel rising within you hitherto latent elements of genius, make haste to reproduce your muse on a sheet of foolscap.

to play too loudly at times. On the whole, a very fine interpretation of this great symphony was given, and the orchestra was well rewarded by the enthusiastic applause of the audience who were not satisfied until an encore had been given.

The second item on the programme was from the Symphony No. 2, by Scriabine, being written in that composer's characteristic ultra-modern style. It was received with such applause that the "Gnomes' Dance," by Ilynski, was given as an encore, and when the audience again demanded more, the "Arabian Dance" from Tchaikowsky's Nut-Cracker Suite was played. The third number was a tone poem by Rachmaninoff, one of the greatest living Russian composers. It also proved to be very popular, and as an encore the concert-master played the "Serenade," by Arenski, accompanied by the orchestra. This aroused such enthusiasm that he was obliged to give another solo.

The last number on the programme consisted of several descriptive sketches by Musorgski. This was given a very fine reading by the orchestra, and, as with all the other pieces, an encore was demanded, an excerpt from Tchaikowsky's Nut-Cracker Suite being played.

With this, one of the finest musical events of the season was brought to a close. The programme, which consisted entirely of the works of Russian composers, was given in a very adequate manner, and Modest Altschuler and his orchestra must indeed feel well rewarded for their good work by the enthusiastic reception which the audience gave them.

COL. J. M. ELDER, C. M. G., HONORED BY PORTUGAL; MANY MORE GRADS. HOME

"Commander of the Military Order of Aviz" Is One of Oldest Orders of Europe—Dr. Walter McInnes, Med. '65, One of McGill's Oldest Grads., Passed Away at Victoria—Arts '12 Graduate Selected as Secretary of Committee to Wait on Members of Federal Government.

Col. J. M. Elder.

Col. J. M. Elder, C.M.G., Arts '81,
Med. '85 who commanded No 3 (McGill)
General Hospital in France, has received a letter from Col. McBride, O.C. of No. 1 Portuguese Hospital, paying tribute to the work of the McGill unit and Col. Elder. During the winter of 1917-18 the McGill Hospital treated over 5,000 Portuguese soldiers, and Col. McBride, then a captain, was chief of the attending Portuguese medical officers. Col.
Elder has been awarded the grade of commander of the Portuguese Military Order of Aviz.

The letter from Col. McBride reads:
"I hasten to let you know that I have just learned through the War
Ministry Bulletin that the Portuguese
Government had granted you the grade of Commander of the Military Order of Aviz.

"I am very happy to see that my country has given you proof of its appreciation for the great care which the five thousand Portuguese soldiers received when they passed through the No. 3 Canadian General Hospital (McGill).

"More than anyone, I know what we owe to this model hospital, where I spent the best part of my sojourn in France, and of which I keep the most agreeable souvenir. I will always remember the kind welcome
which the Portuguese officers received from you and your officers, and the devotion of Miss MacLachy and the sisters for our sick and wounded.

"I cannot but appreciate what we have learned from you during our sojourn with you, which knowledge has enabled me to take up the task of opening my own hospital. I look for a model your magnificent organization.

"It is for all these reasons that the Portuguese Government wished to honor you with one of the oldest orders of Europe. The order was founded by the Cavalier Monks in the 13th century. The highest princes of Portugal were members, including D. Henrique, the great navigator, and the son of King John I., Grand Master of the Order. The latter gave his name to the most brilliant dynasty of Portugal.

"The color of the order is green,
and as Commander you are entitled to the crest and shield. I think that you will receive these from the War Office, but I ask you for the permission to offer you the shield, which I will easily obtain from Lisbon.

"Please accept, my Colonel, the homage of my best sentiments, my profound respect, and my most sincere devotion.—Col. McBride."

Why They Are Buying WAR-SAVINGS STAMPS

The housewife is economizing in comfortable ways and investing in War-Savings Stamps at $4.02 each this month. In 1924, when these stamps are redeemed at $5.00 each, every dollar
will have greater purchasing power.

The business man is cutting off small and unnecessary expenditures and buying War-Savings Stamps. He knows his money is available any time he really needs it, with added interest. $5 for $4 in five years is an excellent return on money otherwise idle.

School children are buying Thrift Stamps
at 25 cents each and are filling their Thrift Cards in order to acquire a War-Savings Stamp.
They are helping their country and acquiring the habit of Thrift.

Men on the farms are buying W.S.S. because the Government uses the money to finance export orders for the food raised on Canadian farms. This makes their market sure.

Men, women and children of all ages
and conditions of life, are investing in W.S.S.
because it is a convenient way to "build a bond".
The security is absolute and the interest is unusually high. Some day they will look back with great satisfaction to the day when they bought their first War-Savings Stamps.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Daily is not responsible for the contents of letters published in the correspondence column. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculty will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY.

No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

To the Editor McGill Daily.

May I through your valuable column call the close attention of the students to the several very important events which lay before us during the remaining part of our session. I am taking this liberty, because some students are unable to give their support at such a time, unless at an early date they set these dates aside, as "nights off" from their studies. In no doing, they will not impair their chances at the final examinations, but will get the necessary relaxation and also show the men who are behind the events that this enthusiasm is rewarded.

The primary idea is to prepare for next year's intercollegiate competition. French, B. W. and F., and aquatic meets will show how McGill stands. We all know there is plenty of material throughout the college; it only remains to find it and arouse the necessary support and enthusiasm. This when next year's version opens, we will be off to a good start, and the name McGill held before and during the war will still be to the fore.

Finally, wish to make a plea on behalf of the coming Council elections and semi-annual meeting; much work and reorganization lies before us, and this can only be successful by having each and every student's help and interest; the one way to show this is by voting for the men whom you consider to be the most capable one in each case, and second by your presence at the semi-annual meeting, at which, much important business will be open for discussion.

So 'all up' men and right now let us show the old college spirit and "pry".

Sincerely,

ROSS R. LAINY,

Pres. Students Council.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE JUNIOR DANCE

Suitable Decorations Have Been Provided for the Event.

The dance to take place on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Junior year, is expected to be the most successful held for some years past. The Students' Council co-operated with the Junior Dance committee to make the dance a huge success and nothing has been left undone.

Special attention has been paid to the decoration of the building for the event. Throughout the lounge rooms and halls cut flowers will be distributed and palms will be located in suitable places. The dance halls will be decorated with flags and McGill colors and should present a very pretty appearance.

The finest orchestra obtainable in the city has been secured; the Berliner orchestra from the Ritz Carlton hotel will supply the music in the upper hall, under the personal direction of Berliner. In the lounge room, where they will also hold dancing, a Jazz band will be in attendance for those who prefer that type of music.

The posters appearing in the various buildings, advertising the dance, have been much admired during the past week and are very effective. There are still a few tickets left but they are not expected to last throughout the day, to-day. Students who fail to get their tickets in the time will not be accommodated on the night of the dance as accommodation for only a limited number has been provided.

MCGILL VS. VICTORIAS ON TUESDAY NIGHT

A Keenly Contested Game is Expected.

McGill will meet Victorias Tuesday night on the Victoria Rink. The game is to be played for charitable purposes and as such deserves the hearty support of all the students. The team has been working hard to get in condition for this game and there is no doubt that those present will see one of the snappiest games of the season. The winners are to play Loyola, so it is important that a large attendance of rooters be present to cheer the team on. The proceeds will go to the St. Patrick's Orphans' Home and The Children's Hospital.

A DAILY WORKER:

A. I. SMITH.

Campus Leaders.

ARTHUR IVES SMITH.

Any students who during the past three years have taken the slightest interest in the proceedings of "McGill Daily," will be absolutely familiar with the cheerful smile and capacity for work of A. I. Smith, Arts '19. "A. I.", as he is almost universally called by his acquaintances, has been engaged in work on the paper since his first arrival at the college, and held the office of President for the year of 1917-1918.

Born at Compton, P.Q., in 1896, Smith received his preparatory education at Huntingdon Academy. He then entered McGill with the class of Arts '18, but the following year decided to switch over to Law, returning to Arts in time to be a member of the illustrious class of Arts '19. His activities, which are many and varied, are as follows:

Class Hockey; News Editor, McGill Daily, 1916-1917; Managing Editor, 1917; President, 1918; Arts Representative, Students' Council, 1917-1918; Arts Representative, Annual Board, 1917-1918; Vice-President of Class, 1917-1918-1919; Treasurer McGill Y.M.C.A., 1918-19.

The favourite pursuit of "A. I." seems to be writing theses—and other things. He is noted for his hollow chuckle, coupled with the remark, "It's an awful life!" The Daily representative was unable to elicit from him his favourite colour. However, he learned that Mr. Smith is strongly opposed to the presence in class of members of the fair sex.

His ambition is to retire with three typewriters and a ton of paper and write libels on other members of the Daily staff.

all men who can swim are wanted. It is hoped that some of the team which represented McGill against the M.A.A.A. last Wednesday will turn out and coach the men who are capable of making a fair showing in speed swimming.

Physical Director Walsh will meet the competitors in the Central "Y." Tank on Tuesday, at 4.45, for the purpose of picking out the men.

It is hoped that Fisk, Patten, Bastable and Webster will turn out and any others who can swim or have any previous experience in instructing.

ANNUAL BOARD MEETING.

A meeting of the Annual Board will be held this evening, at 7.30 o'clock, in the Faculty Room of the R.V.C. The meeting will be short but important, and all members of the Board are asked to be present.

MCGILL WON RELAY AQUATIC EXHIBITION

Fine Swimming on Saturday at New National Bath.

The new National bath on Cherrier St. was the scene of an excellent swimming meet last Saturday night. The opening event was an exhibition swim by Miss Helen Fitzsimon, the fastest lady swimmer in Canada, over a distance of 50 yards. She swam with a beautiful stroke and her efforts were well rewarded with loud cheers.

After this followed the 550 yds open, the only event in which McGill was represented, excluding the relay. In the first heat Harold Fisk romped home closely followed by Patten also of the Red and White.

The second heat was won by George Vernot in the wonderful time of 25 4-5 secs.—a new Canadian mark. George Hodgson, an old McGill grad, easily secured first place on the third heat. The final of this race in which Hodgson, Vernot and Fisk swam, was by far the fastest race held in this city for years. Geo. Hodgson, winner of several world's records, got away to a great start closely followed by Vernot, and Fisk, at the turn, the swimmers were practically even but on the final stretch Hodgson and Vernot were alone, racing neck and neck, right to the finish.

After a lengthy discussion the judges gave the result as a dead heat, but many veterans present firmly declared that Hodgson won by a touch. At this, Hodgson offered to swim it over but for some reason his offer was refused, and the result remains as the so-called tie.

In the plate diving event, Laidley of M. A. A. beat out Pearson by a single plate, getting nine plates at a single dive.

In the fancy diving, McGill again failed to be represented, so the honors fell to Laidley, Bowles and Quirk, all of M.A.A.A.

The hundred yard dash was won by Clayton Bourne, the young M.A.A.A. star, followed by Clarence Foran of M. S. C.

In the 200 yds Geo. Hodgson again gave the crowd a real treat by showing them his original stroke which he kept up length after length, wearing his opponents down rapidly and winning by more than a length.

An interesting exhibition of life saving was given by two lady members of the R. L. S. C.

Next followed the main event of the evening—the relay race between all the active clubs in the city.—six in all. In this McGill was entered—entered as a winner at that. Patten got away to a good start and gained about a 10 foot lead, which Bastable, swimming second, more than doubled. Gaboury the third man, easily held the lead against Bourne of M.A.A.A., thus giving Fisk, our last man a few yards lead on Hodgson of the M.A.A.A.—then followed an exciting finish between McGill and M.A.A.A. for supremacy, the Red and White finally winning out in a last desperate spurt by a mere touch. The men of this team are certainly due to be heartily congratulated as they have now proved their ability to meet and defeat any team that an outside club can enter against them. M.A.A.A. finished second with a team composed of Hodgson, Bourne, Norsett and Laidley, M. S. C. gained third place closely followed by M.A.A.A. No 2; J.M.C.A. finished fifth while National made a good sixth. We may add that this race was absolutely scratch no handicap being allowed.

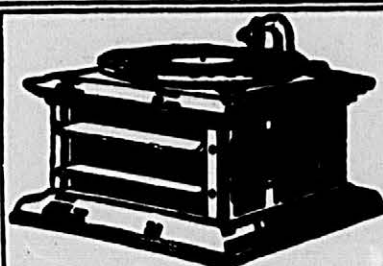

The meet was concluded by an exhibition polo game. The final score was 3-2 in favor of an all star team, composed of M.A.A.A. and McGill men. As far as McGill was concerned, the meet was a great success, but for one thing—the same old kick, "no rooters."—Get busy fellows, you've got a good team to support a team which, so far, does not know what defeat is. We need you at our next meet.

TWO EXHIBITIONS FOR FIRST YEARS

In Memory of Sydney J. Hodgson, Late of Class of Arts '19.

Two exhibitions have recently been awarded to McGill by Arthur J. Hodgson in memory of his son, Sydney J. Hodgson. The latter having matriculated from Westmount High School, enlisted, while in his first year in Arts, in the 66th Battery and was killed in action on Sept. 27th, 1918.

One of these exhibitions, to the value of $125 is tenable in the first year in the Faculty of Arts; the other, to the value of $300, in the Faculty of Applied Science. They are open to students in Westmount High School and will be awarded to the boy or girl making the greatest number of marks in the Matriculation Examinations.
